

Job Description

Job Title: Healthy Transitions Initiative Local Project Coordinator/Clinical Supervisor

Reports To: Director of Behavioral Health, Gateway BHS/Savannah Counseling Services, Inc.

Responsibilities Include:

- Oversees the implementation, coordination and management of the Healthy Transitions Initiative (Youth to Adult Transition Program) in Savannah/Chatham County, and the provision of transition services for youth/young adults and their families.
- Supervises Youth to Adult staff, including three Transition Facilitators, one Family Liaison and one Youth Coordinator, and provides individual, group and clinical supervision.
- Creates and implements strategies to: a.) increase referrals into program, b.) build partnerships with other agencies and businesses, and c.) educate the community on the needs of transition-age youth and young adults.
- Serves as Youth to Adult subject matter expert and liaison to Healthy Transitions Initiative State Project Director, as well as local partners/committees.
- Serves on local and state advisory committees.
- Provides local, state and national trainings and presentations.
- Extensive travel within Chatham County, some travel within Georgia, and occasional travel nationwide.

Qualifications:

Required qualifications:

- Licensed, (LPC, LCSW, LMFT), with a minimum of two years of experience in the field of children's mental health
- Experience or knowledge of issues related to transition-age youth
- Experience in service and program coordination and development
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Comfort with public speaking

Employment Information:

- Full-time salaried position with benefits.
- Program is funded through a federal grant, with local program oversight provided by Gateway BHS/Savannah Counseling Services, Inc.