

Jarvis, I'm gonna ask Mike for help with applying for this job, but how should I do that?

Why don't you just ask?

Hey Mike, I kind of need your help with something. I get that you probably don't have time to help me...

Don't ask him like that...

I'm feeling nervous about it. What if he is mean about it or says no, Should I practice?

Mike would be mean?

Okay, okay, you're right. Start over. This time, you be Mike.

Hey Mike, I'm trying to apply for a job and need help with the application. Would you mind helping me out?

Yes, yes, yes!
